

High Rent At Watergate

RK: But I got here in 1970, and was at - well, I had an apartment. And I went to the, where the robbery was, where was that?

DS: Watergate?

RK: Watergate! I went to Watergate to get an apartment, and because it looked like a neat place, you know. And the lady says, "yeah, we have an apartment for you," and I said, "oh, that's great!" And I said, "what is the tariffs?" And she said - what did she say? - oh, something - eighty-something, eighty-five, or whatever. And I said, oh, $85 a month?! And she said, no, $850 a month. And I said, "oh." [Laughs]. Told her goodbye! Anyway, I forget exactly what it was, but it was far more than I could afford.
