

Vienna's Past Landscape

DS: And the first house that you had built was in Westwood, correct?

RN: It was right behind Westwood. Right behind Westwood Country Club.

DS: Off of, uh -

RN: Yeah, it was on Country Club Drive, which was right behind Westwood Country Club.

DS: So they were probably the first - some of the first families that moved in there.

RN: Yeah. Downtown Vienna was a two-lane road. Country Club Drive, where I lived, was a dirt road. Things have changed.

SA: Was it still a farming community then, in the sixties:

RN: Still a farming community?

SA: Yeah.

RN: I'm not sure that that's the right descriptive, but it wasn't sophisticated like it is now. I actually never knew it as a farming community. But it was a - it was totally different than it is now.

SA: Like how?

RN: It was country. People - it was much smaller. So you knew a lot of people. And so on. And it was very pleasant, we enjoyed it.
