JUNE 2021

VOL. XXII, NO. 2

Vienna celebrates Liberty Amendments Month!

Our nation is uniquely bound together through rights that have been established by the United States Constitution, which provides a way for our imperfect union to become more perfect over time. Passage of the 13th, 14th, 15th, and 19th Amendments, which now are enshrined in our United States Constitution, grants rights to people who previously were excluded from full participation. The 4th of July celebrates the birth of our nation. Liberty Amendments Month celebrates these four amendments to our Constitution that, together, provide a common opportunity for all to help shape our nation and benefit our diverse heritage. Together, we are amazing.

Liberty Amendments Day has been recognized as an official 2021 Town holiday on July 19, and Liberty Amendments Month, to be celebrated June 19-July 19, has been officially recognized by the commonwealth of Virginia, having been adopted this year by the General Assembly.

Planning for the Town of Vienna's inaugural Liberty Amendments Month celebration is underway – and community organizations, businesses, and individuals are being encouraged to help shape the four weeks of festivities. The calendar of events will be posted on the Town website under Liberty Amendments Month. Here's a QR code for the events:

Historic Vienna, Inc. is participating in a number of ways, Leigh Kitcher is on the Advisory Committee helping the town with event planning, 3 board members are Facilitators: Katie Newland (books and storytelling), Steve Shannon (education and lectures), and Anne Stuntz (tours) helping applicants with planning similar kinds of events. Historic Vienna is sponsoring or participating in a number of events, focused primarily on education, tours and reading. For details, see the Special Events section on page 4.

Used Book Cellar

Please welcome Michele and David Dunlap, John Moore, and Jim Carson, Used Book Cellar volunteers extraordinaire! Their expertise offered as avid readers, book lovers, author, and professional librarians makes volunteering a pleasure.

During the months of January and February, Book Sale Finder, a national site announcing book sales, advertised our small sale. In addition, on April 6, some dealers and the public came by for a special sale day. So many shoppers, traveling from distances, such as Roanoke, are always surprised and delighted to shop in the cellar. We expect to continue offering special sale days.

Opportunities to volunteer:

- donate books and help with sorting
- offer to read to youth during our warmer summer days
- assist with special sales
- review a book and post your critique in the cellar
- help distribute used books to the little lending libraries
- routinely bring to the Freeman Store the New York Times or other publications top book lists to post
- come and visit us during store hours, beginning June 2: Wednesday through Sunday, 12-4.
- suggestions for improvements are appreciated, as is your patronage! See you at Viva Vienna!

When you donate used books, continue to box or bag your contributions and place them on the porch benches or bring inside, if the store is open. No magazines, textbooks, romance novels or small paperbacks are accepted. Your donations are tremendously appreciated and support HVI programs and activities in numerous ways.

Shoppers are delighted to find this gem of a used book store right in the heart of Vienna, so please share our location with others.

Historic Vienna is asking for book donations all year round.

From the Museum Committee

Volunteer Enhancing Our Grounds!

Volunteers with a mission are amazing and so appreciated! Many months ago, Chuck Balch approached our storekeepers and suggested he would enjoy enhancing the Freeman Store grounds. Beginning this winter, Chuck began his garden restoration projects in earnest, donating his time and energy, and lovely plants, including numerous ferns to the beautification of the grounds.

Recently, we collaborated on creating a woodland bed along the Piney Branch tributary near the patio. Planted with natives, the new bed will one day merge with the woodland walk under the pedestrian bridge, and Ayr Hill Garden Club's Anniversary Garden. Congratulations to

Young Reader Roundup

We have kids books galore!! A beautiful selection of hard cover classic story books, great activity & coloring books, DK Eye Witness books on interesting topics, and a well-stocked selection of young adult for the upper grades.

Get them
actively reading
this Summer!

Chuck for his volunteering spirit and contribution to enhancing the grounds.

In 2020, Ayr Hill Garden Club with assistance from Parks and Recreation staff cleared the jungle of tangled vines and alien plants along the creek by the Freeman Store and Museum. The Club then created the Anniversary Garden to honor the Club's 90 years dedicated to enhancing the Town's green areas.

The plantings include low maintenance, labeled native plants that will prevent erosion along the Piney Branch tributary. Ayr Hill Garden Club members anticipate educating the public, and especially children, about native plantings and their role in attracting native insects, butterflies, and birds.

These gardens when merged together will create native habitat from Church Street along the length of the Freeman Store and Museum property. We look forward to the day Freeman Store and Museum visitors can exit the side door, cross the bridge, and admire the joys of nature. Mr. Abram Lydecker will smile!

Eagle Scout Project

In recent months Historic Vienna board members and Tyler Peake have been collaborating to accomplish his Eagle Scout project. In late April Tyler completed Part I of his project by installing pavers, donated by the Town of Vienna. Located nearby the Freeman Store front porch and the side lawn steps, this latest hard-scaped area is not only good-looking, but allows for safe transition from one area to another.

For Part II of his project, Tyler is researching the early days of the Lydecker Store, the railroad and train skirmish, the secession vote held at the Store, and the use of the Lydecker Store during the Civil War. Four signs communicating this research will be installed on the Freeman Store and Museum property, near the Piney Branch and the new woodland walkway garden.

Covid Stories

What is your pandemic story? We ALL have them whether they are heartwarming or heartbreaking. The Vienna community had to create new ways to handle the difficult challenges we faced in this past 15 months of the pandemic. Our community is a special one and hearing your stories of these trying times and all the ways we got through it together is important.

HVI's oral history project is focusing on collecting and preserving pandemic stories from Vienna residents, businesses, front line workers, local organizations, students, community leaders and schools. We would like to add many more stories so please consider adding yours. Following are some ways we encourage you to participate and tell your story:

- Send us a short write up

- Contact us to record your story - in person or on a zoom call
- Create a poem or piece of artwork expressing your feelings
- Share photographs of changes in the town or your experiences during this time

Please visit our website: <https://historicviennainc.org> to view our current collection of stories and learn how to add yours. Look under Covid Stories and you will see how to participate as well as view some wonderful submissions from a variety of sources - we even heard from Santa and from Lydia Russo about Vienna Foodies!

If you have questions or wish to set up an interview please contact us at hvioralhistory@gmail.com.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Heritage Award

The 2020 (and 2021) Heritage Award has been given to Marie Kisner for her book, 'Vienna Stories 1950-2000'. We were finally able to present the award to Marie at our 2021 Virtual Spring Membership Meeting. She joined us from her home in Texas. We enjoyed chatting with her at the end of the program.

Good news!. Historic Vienna has reprinted Marie's book and it is once again available for purchase in the Freeman Store. Historic Vienna is grateful for Marie's donation of the rights to the book and the initial 200 copies.

If This House Could Talk

HVI relaunched its 'If This House Could Talk' program during this year's wonderful in-person Walk on the Hill. In 2019 we had 6 signs out. This year we added 9 more.

It's fun to be able to read the history of a place when you walk by. Join us at next year's Walk on the Hill with the history of your own house. Historic Vienna Inc. will provide the temporary yard signs and advice and moral support. Tell about who owned your house in the past. Tell about recent owners. Research old deeds. Any detail could be interesting! If you're in an older home, you can apply for the Town's Register of Historic Sites, too. It's a wonderful honor to be on this list.

Not in the historic district? Then let's try it in your neighborhood.

In 2019 we had signs for 223 Walnut Lane* and the log cabin, 307 Windover, and 309 Windover*. In 2021 we added 125 Pleasant Street, 211 Walnut*, 261 Windover, 277 Windover, 280 Windover, 324 West Street, 326 West Street, 331 Lewis*, and 350 Windover. Many thanks to these owners for supporting the program.

Special Events

Liberty Amendments Month – Historic Vienna Events

We are preparing a wide variety of exhibits, events and activities for Liberty Amendments Month. While planning is not yet complete, we thought you would appreciate knowing what we have in the works.

- Weekly mini-exhibits, one on each amendment simultaneously presented in the Freeman Store book case (one at a time) and in the Community Center (cumulatively).
- "Flash Card Quiz," questions with answers on the back for each amendment (they would be real flash cards on a ring, but Covid prevents that so they will be in posters outside). Madison High School History Honor group has helped us with this.
- Amendment Learning Tour - yard signs, color coded for each amendment will be placed in groups around town telling mini segments of the history around each amendment. For example, First Baptist would like to have a sign for African American Suffrage leaders for the 19th amendment. This may be combined with a scavenger hunt (find all of the signs).
- African American Historic Sites Tour of Vienna – this is a self-guided tour of contributions of Vienna's African Americans from 1867 to 2006 compiled by longtime residents Sylvia Taylor and Gloria Runyon.
- Northwest Vienna African American Neighborhood Tour – this tour explores Vienna's historic African American neighborhood and key landmarks.
- Suffrage Rally – this will be on the lawn of the First Baptist Church and will include a play written and produced by the Girl Scouts, a parade for Suffrage with Votes For Women banners and replicas of the signs carried by protesters around the White House and other activities. This could include a speech on the newly dedicated Turning Point Memorial.
- Mock Trial Court Case: Loving vs Virginia – we are drafting a script that will be presented by the Young Lawyers of Fairfax County. The event will be held in the Town Council Chambers and will allow in-person and virtual attendance.
- Women's Rights Panel Discussion – a four-person panel of leaders in Women's Rights issues will be moderated by Sharon Gower of the Bahai Faith Community. Leigh Kitcher will discuss historical aspects of women's issues.

- Stories and Songs – stories that relate to the amendments will be read during the month with a special presentation of Bunheads.
- Bibliography and Webliography – a curated list of relevant books and other media sources will be presented by HVI on the Liberty Amendments Month website.
- Used Book Cellar – will have a special section dedicated to relevant books for readers of all ages.

Soon the calendar of all events will be released and there will be a link to it from our website.

Historic Vienna is excited and proud to be part of celebrating Liberty Amendments Month. We look forward to seeing you at various events. If you would like to volunteer to support these events email us at historicviennava@gmail.com.

Stories and Songs (Sorry NO Sprinklers!)

Once again, Historic Vienna is pleased to bring the joy of books to our youngest readers. Enjoy weekday story times brought directly to you by local children's bibliophiles and librarians as they read beloved books, sing songs, move to music, and share early literacy fun.

After a long, isolated season, this summer is the time to reconnect with other families in the neighborhood and meet new friends at live storytelling on Wednesdays, June 30 – July 28, 1:00-1:30 pm near the patio area of Historic Vienna's Freeman Store.

Bunheads! Reading and Performance

As part of the Town's inaugural Liberty Amendment Month, the season kicks off on June 30 with a reading of Misty Copeland's Bunheads and more stories with dance by members of the Cuppett Performing Arts Center.

Many more readings and activities will continue throughout the summer. We look forward to seeing you, your children and their friends for these special events. Mark your calendars now and spread the word.

Walk on the Hill – Our 1st In-Person Event

One of Vienna’s first Covid era in-person events was this year’s Walk on the Hill, on Sunday April 25, 1:30-5 pm. The event celebrated 42 years of the Windover Heights Historic District, 92 years of the Ayr Hill Garden Club and 52 years of the Vienna Arts Society. And this was also the 50th year of the Walk! Initiated in 1971 by residents of the area in conjunction with the Ayr Hill Garden Club, even before the area was designated as the Windover Heights Historic District, the Walk has been co-sponsored since 1983 by Historic District residents, Historic Vienna, Inc. and the Town of Vienna.

COVID restrictions required that the number of people in attendance at any one time was limited to 250. Masks and social distancing were required for everyone. Hospitality was eliminated. The Town posted a sign-up via their RecTrac system, and required no-cost tickets.

Hickory Grove and the Vienna Community Band performed at 288 Windover. Vienna Arts Society plein-air painters joined us, and VAS was open at their new location nearby. Ayr Hill Garden Club presented a photography showcase and botanical arts exhibits at 277 Windover Avenue. Salsbury Spring (Ayr Hill Garden Club) and Green Hedges School hosted native plant exhibits.

Many thanks to Windover Heights volunteer Becky Gottfried, Town Parks & Rec Lily Wildman, and everyone who helped make the day a success.

One Week – Three Winners

We did It! April 17-24 Historic Vienna, Inc. and Bobby B. Frog celebrated reading by promoting the 60+ little free libraries in Vienna.

A little free library is a “take a book leave a book” free book exchange. As you can imagine during Covid with access to libraries and bookstores limited, there has been a tremendous increase in interest in these sites. They are gathering places where neighbors come together and share their favorite literature and stories. They are structures that come in many shapes and sizes where anyone can stop by and pick up a good book or leave another to share. They provide literature for residents while strengthening connections across our shared community.

During mid-April the sites around town were stocked with books for adults and children as well as bookmarks, stickers, bingo cards and lists of the little free libraries in Vienna. There were three lucky winners for the bingo card drawing, the Town’s favorite little library and the most hashtag postings. Community response was overwhelmingly positive and there is now talk about making this an annual activity.

In the meantime, please continue to enjoy these wonderful resources unique to Vienna. Bobby is a virtual visitor to little libraries all over the world. Follow Bobby B. Frog and learn more at

Local History Books

We invite you to browse our books on local history written by local authors. Here is a brief summary of a few interesting ones.

Chasing Mosby, Killing Booth by James Carson

The origins and operations of a Union Army cavalry regiment stationed here in Vienna are traced from 1863 through the end of the Civil War. Commanded by Mr. Carson's great grandfather, the 16th New York volunteer cavalry spent much of its time chasing, but rarely having success against, Confederate Colonel John Mosby's partisan rangers. In April 1865, however, the regiment achieved instant fame when one of its patrols captured and killed Lincoln assassin John Wilkes Booth. This book provides a unique perspective on Union Army operations in and around Fairfax and Loudon County.

The Chalice and the Stirrup Cup by George Atkisson

What was it like to live in early 20th century rural Vienna? George Atkisson, a lifelong resident of Vienna and a World War II veteran, this autobiographical novel about his life experiences in northern Virginia during the Great Depression.

Cartography of Northern Virginia by Richard Stephenson

A fascinating collection of map reproductions of northern Virginia over the years beginning with John Smith's original map of 1608.
