

Professionals

I am a young professional who lost my job thanks to Covid and have been struggling to find another one. I've learned that we are stronger and more resilient than we think we are, and even though it is strange and hard at first, adapting is in our nature. You can lift yourself back up from the ground again and you should never lose hope.

February 2021

I have been with the FBI for over 20 years and never in my wildest dreams did I ever think I would walk into an FBI building with a mask on my face. An unbelievable and surreal experience for me.

February 2021

